NoMa Farmers Market Expanding and Relocating to Third Street NE

Market Open Every Thursday from 4-8 PM Beginning May 2 through October 31, 2024

(Washington, DC, April 22, 2024) – The NoMa Farmers Market is expanding and relocating from Alethia Tanner Park to Third Street NE, it was announced today. The Market, located on the vibrant Third Street between M and N Streets NE, will be open every Thursday from 4:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. from May through October. Opening day is May 2, 2024.

“We’re excited to expand and build on the success of the NoMa Farmers Market,” said Maura Brophy, President and CEO of the NoMa Business Improvement District. “This new, larger space on Third Street NE at the nexus of NoMa and Union Market will allow us to offer an even broader selection of farm-fresh produce, top-quality meats, and a variety of artisan products including pickles, breads, and honey.”

The NoMa BID first launched the NoMa Farmers Market in 2022 at Alethia Tanner Park to provide fresh food options for the community and a marketplace for local vendors to showcase and sell their goods. The Market quickly became a weekly staple for neighbors wishing to connect with each other and shop locally to support dozens of vendors and small business pop-ups. Given the demand for additional farmers and food truck vendors that operate from larger vehicles, a new location was needed.

The NoMa Farmers Market on Third Street NE between N and M Streets NE is conveniently located near the NoMa-Gallaudet Metro Station, the Metropolitan Branch Trail, and the bustling restaurants and shops of NoMa and Union Market. Weekly visitors to the market can look forward to live music, ample seating along the street, and an exciting mix of new and returning local vendors each week offering a range of products including seasonal produce, farm-raised meats, prepared ready-to-eat meals, natural pet products, handmade baked goods and artisan products from:
